- 2.2 A former partner of the Company’s existing auditing firm should be prohibited from acting as a Committee Member for a period of two years from the date of this person ceasing (a) to be a partner of the firm; or (b) to have any financial interest in the firm, whichever is later.
- 2.3 The chairman of the Committee (the “Chairman”) must be appointed by the Board. The Chairman must be an independent non-executive Director.
- 2.4 The appointment of the Committee Members may be revoked, or additional members may be appointed to the Committee by separate resolutions passed by the Board and by the Committee.
- 2.5 A Committee Member may not appoint any alternate.

3. SECRETARY

3.1 The secretary of the Committee (the “Secretary”) (who should normally be the company secretary of the Company) shall be appointed by the Board from time to time.

4. PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

4.1 Notice

Notice of any Committee meetings has to be given not less than three clear days (including non-working days) prior to such meeting being held unless all Committee Members unanimously waive such notice. Irrespective of the length of notice being given, attendance of a meeting by a Committee Member shall be deemed waiver of the requisite length of notice by the Committee Member. Notice of any re-convention of adjourned meetings is not required if re-convention is for less than 14 days from the adjourned meeting.

A Committee Member may and, on the request of a Committee Member, the Secretary shall, at any time summon a Committee meeting.

Notice shall be given to each Committee Member in person, orally or in writing or by telephone or by telex or telegram or facsimile transmission or email at the telephone or facsimile or address from time to time notified to the secretary by such Committee Member or in such other manner as the Committee Members may from time to time determine.

Any notice given orally shall be confirmed in writing. Notice of meeting shall state the time and place of the meeting and shall be accompanied by an agenda together with other documents which may be required to be considered by the Committee Members for the purposes of the meeting.

For regular Committee meetings, and as far as practicable in all other cases, an agenda and accompanying board papers should be sent, in full, to all Committee Members in a timely manner and at least three days before the intended date of a Committee meeting (or other agreed period).

4.2 Quorum

The quorum of the Committee meeting shall be two Committee Members.

Committee meetings could be held in person, by telephone or by video conference. Committee Members may participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting are capable of hearing each other.

If within thirty minutes from the time appointed for a meeting, a quorum is not present, upon majority agreement by the Committee Members present, the meeting shall stand adjourned. The Committee secretary or any Committee Member can issue the notice for adjourned meeting. If within ten minutes from the time appointed for the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present, the Committee Members present shall duly constitute a quorum and shall be entitled to exercise all the powers conferred upon the Committee.

4.3 Chairman

The Chairman shall preside as the chairman of a Committee meeting. If within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the Chairman is not present, other Committee Members present shall choose someone from their number to be the chairman of the meeting.

4.4 Vote

Each Committee Member present in a meeting shall have one vote. All resolutions passed in the meeting shall be by majority votes in favour thereof. If the votes for and against a resolution are equal, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

4.5 Attendees of meetings

The financial controller of the Group (or any officer(s) assuming the relevant functions but having a different designation) and representative(s) of the external auditor shall normally attend meetings. Other Board members, external advisers and other persons shall also have the right of attendance the whole or any part of the Committee meeting at the invitation of the Committee Members. However, the Committee Members should liaise with the Board and the Company's management, and the Committee must meet, at least twice a year, with the Company's external auditor.

4.6 Number of meetings

Meetings shall be held at least once in a half year and at least twice a year to consider the budget, revised budget and interim or annual report prepared by the Board. The external auditor may request the Chairman to convene a Committee meeting, if they consider that one is necessary.

4.7 Written resolutions

- (g) to review the Company's financial controls, and unless expressly addressed by a separate Board risk committee, or by the Board itself, to review the Company's risk management and internal control systems;
- (h) to discuss the Company's risk management and internal control systems with the Company's management to ensure that the management has performed its duty to have effective systems. This discussion should include the adequacy of resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes and budget of the Company's accounting and financial reporting function;
- (i) to consider major investigation findings on risk management and internal control matters as delegated by the Board or on its own initiative and management's responses to these findings;
- (j) where an internal audit function exists, to ensure co-ordination between the internal and external auditors, and to ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Company, and to review and monitor its effectiveness;

- (k) to review the Group's financial and accounting policies and practices;
- (l) to review the external auditor's management letter, any material queries raised by the auditor to management about accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control and management's response;
- (m) to ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised in the external auditor's management letter;
- (n) to review arrangements employees of the Company can use, in confidence, to raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters. The Committee should ensure that proper arrangements are in place for fair and independent investigation of these matters and for appropriate follow-up action;
- (o) to act as the key representative body for overseeing the Company's relations with the external auditor;
- (p) to recommend the establishment of a whistleblowing policy and system for employees and those who deal with the Company (e.g. customers and suppliers) to raise concerns, in confidence, with the Committee about possible improprieties in any matter related to the Company;
- (q) to prepare work reports for presentation to the Board and to prepare summary of work reports for inclusion in the Group's interim and annual reports (if necessary);
- (r) to consider the appointment of any person (whose appointment will not violate the Listing Rules) to be a Committee Member either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Committee Member or dismissal of any of them;
- (s) to have the chairman of the Committee or any Committee Member or their delegate(s) being appointed attending the Company's annual general meeting and be prepared to respond to the Company's shareholders' questions on the Committee's activities and their responsibilities;
- (t) to report to the Board on the matters in this Code; and
- (u) to consider other topics, as defined by the Board.

6.2 The Committee should be provided with sufficient resources to perform its duties.
